We encourage you to wear your swimsuit underneath your clothes and have your hair and makeup ready by the time you arrive to the backstage. We also encourage women to bring two (2) bikinis.

BIKINI MODEL

ATTIRE

Contestants can wear a standard two-piece bikini of any colour pattern as long it's in good taste. Micro-bikinis, G-strings, or thongs are not permitted. High heels are the footwear to be worn in this category. Wear heels that you're able to comfortably walk in and are not distracting to the judges and audience. Jewelry should complement the physique and not distract from it. Please, no large necklaces or bracelets. Earrings, simple bracelets, and rings that complement your physique are permitted.

BODY PRESENTATION

The emphasis here is based on marketability and a healthy, shapely, athletic physique with visible abs and overall attractiveness.

Facial beauty, physical fitness, even skin tone, poise, posture, and confidence are key to photogenic quality and overall marketability and placing. Skin tone and complexion should be smooth, firm, and healthy in appearance and without cellulite. Hair and makeup should complement the total presentation.

MEN'S FITNESS MODEL

ATTIRE

Contestants' attire is shorts that complement the contestants' physique. Shorts need to be worn in good taste with no torn materials or holes. We prefer the contestants be in bare feet. Jewelry is optional.

BODY PRESENTATION

Men are judged on marketability. A lean, developed, and proportionate musculature with visible muscle separation and overall conditioning. Symmetry and clearly defined abs are keys to overall assessment. A well-proportioned, photogenic healthy-looking, tanned, muscular physique is the desired presentation. Remember, stage presence is also important as poise and self-confidence are easily detected by the judges and audience, which may affect your overall marketability and placing.

TRANSFORMATION:

Write us your transformational story and include a before photo.

ATTIRE

Women – Bikini or Sportswear

Men – Shorts

BODY PRESENTATION

No one is judged in this category, you all are success stories. Prizes will be a random draw basis.

JUDGING

- Judges will consist of magazine staff, industry personalities and influencers, so bring your best to the stage ... you just never know who could be evaluating you.
- Contestants will walk out and be introduced individually where they will be able to pose and turn however they choose.
- If you have given us the name of your trainer, he/she will be announced as you come out onstage.
- Once all contestants have been introduced, they will be called forward to complete front and back poses for judging and comparisons.
- In general, judges will be looking for a healthy, fit, photogenic physique worthy of being in Status Fitness Magazine. The judging will involve critiquing toned bodies that display desired conditioning, symmetry, body shape, complexion, poise and overall presentation for the category being judged. A healthy tan is highly recommended to allow both the judges and audience to see the physique under bright lights, as is having an even skin tone for overall presentation.
- Attire must complement the contestants' physique. It must be worn in good taste.
- Keep posing and presentation in good taste. Posing in a provocative or overly sexual manner will be frowned upon and result in a lower placing.
- Contestant numbers must be attached to the front left of the contestant bottoms.
- All contestants must assign Status Fitness Magazine's Waiver form and agree to the terms and conditions prior to stepping onstage.
